

MEMBERSHIP

At Celebration Church we understand the value and purpose of expectation and commitment. We have an expectation of our members and strongly believe that our members should have an expectation of our leadership and church as a whole. This agreement serves to clearly set expectations and for each of our members to be on the same page with other members. Every member is held to this standard and we believe that if each member follows these guidelines then our church will function at the greatest level of health, relationships, and optimizations.

Becoming a member at Celebration Church involves the completion of 5 things

ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

I agree to REACH out to new or unchristian people in my community with the good news about Jesus Christ and the fact that He wants to have a restored relationship with every single person...including them. This will require...

- Sharing the gospel with non-Christians who God has given us the opportunity to know and love
- Inviting my family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers to my Life Group, to worship services, and to special events
- Participating and supporting local, national, and international mission opportunities
- Making all new people, regardless of their appearance, feel welcomed and loved when they attend any Celebration Church function

I agree to BELONG to the local body of Celebration Church and fulfill my responsibility as an interdependent part of what God plans to do in and through Celebration Church.

This will require...

- Being an advocate of reconciliation and healing in accordance with the scripture when it involves relationships and offenses that take place within the body of Christ.
- Consistently attending and engaging in the activities and meetings of my Life Group
- Consistently participating in weekly worship services
- Faithfully tithing and giving to the work, mission, and vision of Celebration Church

I agree to learn and GROW in my relationship with the Lord and to SERVE others just as incarnate Jesus exemplified the attitude of humility and service amongst the disciples. This will require...

- Participating as a volunteer and lay leader to serve others in the context of the ministries of Celebration Church
- Developing a personal quiet time and spiritual disciplines so that I can personally hear from God and be transformed by the Holy Spirit
- Taking advantage of opportunities the church offers to grow in spiritual health and family communication systems so that I can exemplify a holistic relationship with the Lord
- Embracing a life of purpose by discovering how God has called and created me to serve the body of Christ and community at large

I agree to LEAD others within our church by example, attitude, and sacrifice. This will require...

- Serving as a Celebration Friend and mentor to others within my Life Group as the opportunities arise
- Seeking God's voice for His direction and will when opportunities to step into leadership positions are made available
- Spiritually investing in others providing vulnerability, compassion, and accountability to help them further their personal relationship with God.
